

Abdikairov Abdigali

Candidate of technical sciences. He works at the institute for 37 years in positions from engineer to head of laboratory. Worked on the creation of machines for processing products of astrakhan, installations for the use of renewable energy sources, wind turbines. The SOK-200 semi-automatic lathe developed by him was introduced in the farms of Kazakhstan, Uzbekistan and Mongolia. The author of more than 50 scientific publications and 6 inventions, prepared 1 candidate of science.