

Alekseev Igor Vladimirovich

Head of the patent department, worked at the Institute for more than 30 years. Direction of work - patent information research, the creation of a patent fund, the filing of applications for inventions. At him, the institute's employees received 203 certificates for the invention. According to this indicator, the institute was the second in the USSR. The author of more than 15 scientific papers and 5 inventions.