

Bychkov Nikolai Gavrilovich

He worked at the Institute for more than 30 years. Recently he worked as head of the department. sector of dairy farms. With his participation, a bench was developed and manufactured for calibrating dynamometers, an experimental and experimental samples of the wellhead was developed and a large lot (200 pieces) of unloaders for onboard machines was produced. He developed a project and created an experimental farm in the state farm "Socialism" in the Almaty region. He is the author of 11 published works and 1 author's certificate for the invention.