

Prokopenko Grigory Mikhailovich

Candidate of Technical Sciences. I worked at the institute for 47 years. He worked first in the laboratory of mechanization of pasture improvement processes, and then headed the sector of mathematical support. He made a significant contribution to the development and implementation of the computer support system at the institute. He published more than 30 scientific works and innovative patents of the Republic of Kazakhstan.