

Usmanov Abdukarim Suleyevich

Candidate of Technical Sciences. Since 2009, he has been working at the Institute as a leading research officer, and since 2012 he has been the head of the Laboratory of "Systems of Technologies and Machines in Agriculture". The scientific direction of work is the integration of science and production in agricultural machine building, mechanization of agricultural production. He published more than 180 scientific papers. Under his scientific guidance 2 candidates of sciences were trained, 3 winners of the republican competition of student scientific works were prepared. Awarded a number of diplomas, diplomas of ministries.